

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Rochester Hispanic Business Association Named Julio Vazquez as 2025 Hispanic Business Person of the Year

Award ceremony and gala luncheon set for September 16th at Rochester Riverside Convention Center

ROCHESTER, NY – The Rochester Hispanic Business Association has named Julio Vazquez as the 2025 Rochester Hispanic Business Person of the Year. This prestigious award recognizes outstanding Hispanic entrepreneurs and business leaders who have made significant contributions to the Rochester community through their professional achievements, community involvement, and commitment to excellence.

Vazquez will be honored at a special gala luncheon celebration on Tuesday, September 16th, 2025, at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center. The event will bring together business leaders, community members, and supporters to celebrate Vazquez's remarkable achievements and his positive impact on the Rochester business landscape.

"We are thrilled to recognize Julio Vazquez with this year's Hispanic Business Person of the Year award," said Orlando Rivera, Chair of the Rochester Hispanic Business Association. "His dedication to business excellence and community service exemplifies the entrepreneurial spirit and leadership that this award represents."

The annual Hispanic Business Person of the Year award highlights the vital contributions of Hispanic business leaders to Rochester's economic growth and community development. Recipients are selected based on their business success, community involvement, mentorship of other entrepreneurs, and commitment to advancing opportunities for the Hispanic business community.

Event Details:

- Date: Tuesday, September 16th, 2025
- Location: Rochester Riverside Convention Center
- Format: Gala Luncheon and Awards Ceremony

For more information about the event and to purchase tickets, visit rochesterhba.org.

About the Rochester Hispanic Business Association The Rochester Hispanic Business Association is dedicated to promoting economic development and business opportunities within the Hispanic community. Through networking events, educational programs, and community initiatives, the organization supports Hispanic entrepreneurs and business professionals throughout the greater Rochester area.

Media Contact: Rochester Hispanic Business Association Email Address: hola@rochesterhba.org

Media Contact: Email Address: hola@rochesterhba.org